Maria Luigi Cherubini (1760 - 1842) was an Italian composer who had enormous success as a composer of operas, of which he wrote 29 in all which were produced throughout Italy and in London, Vienna and particularly in Paris, where in 1821 he became director of the Conservatoire. He wrote six string quartets of which only the first three were published in his lifetime with a dedication to his friend Baillot. No. 1 was written in 1814. No. 2 is a transcription apparently made in 1829, of a Symphony in D written in 1815 for the London Philharmonic Society with a newly composed slow movement in place of the original's Larghetto. No. 3 was written in 1834.
